

Spartan Sentinel

Welcome to the Spartan Sentinel, our bi-weekly electronic newsletter for all things DePaul Catholic.

A Message From The President

Dr. Robert Stickles, Ed. D., J. D.

To the DePaul Catholic Community:

As is the case with most Catholic high schools, DePaul Catholic is heavily dependent upon tuition to support its operation. Our fundraising activities generate some income, but the lion's share of our revenue comes from the tuition that our families pay.

We at DePaul work hard to keep our tuition at the most reasonable level possible. But, with costs rising every year, we usually find ourselves faced with the necessity to raise our tuition annually, to keep pace with those increases in our expenses.

I'm happy to report, however, that next year will see an exception to the usual practice. Our Board has concluded, after examining our forecasts, that we will be able to avoid a tuition increase for next year, and we will keep our tuition fixed at $14,200, the current rate. Our fees will remain the same as well.

I'm delighted that we're able to do this for our families. We appreciate the sacrifices that they make to secure a DePaul education for their children, and we're happy to help them with that effort by maintaining our tuition at its present level.

St. Vincent DePaul, pray for us!

Principal's Corner Mr. Russell Petrocelli

Dear Spartan Community:

The first marking period has come to a close and we celebrate the students who have earned academic honors for the start of this school year. I have told the students on many occasions that the school year is a marathon and not a sprint. It takes dedication and commitment over an extended period of time to be successful and I congratulate those students who have made that commitment and those who strive to reach this level of success.

Along the line of service to others, Grades 10 and 11 participated in day-long retreats on November 8. Among the experiences offered to the students on this day of retreat, the Junior Class traveled to the Food Bank in Hillside and worked on separating the donated food so that it could be distributed to those in need. After working at the Food Bank, the juniors traveled to St. John Cathedral in Paterson where they toured the Cathedral with Msgr. Geno Sylva, Rector of the Cathedral, who celebrated Mass for the entire class.

We invite all parents, families, friends, and alumni to our Mass of Thanksgiving which will be celebrated on Wednesday, November 27 at 10:00 AM. Following the Mass, the school community will recognize students who achieved academic honors for Marking Period 1.

Please visit this newsletter on a regular basis to be brought up to speed on the happenings across the campus. If you are a graduate and are in the neighborhood, please stop in and say hello.

Moving Forward...

Mr. John Merritt '71
Vice Principal, Student Life

I've had enough!

Taking the pure joy out of playing a game by adding another stress to young kids.

The day of the Fall Open House was a very rainy day, I mean buckets coming down.

As I drove into school, I saw on the field adjacent to DePaul little kids playing soccer in what was a semi-hurricane. The kids were running around, parents standing in the pouring rain, all on a Sunday morning. I am certain that this must have been, up to the next game, the most important soccer game of their little lives. I am sure there was a lot at stake. College scholarships. Coach's record. Winning in the rain. The little kids, who weren't playing at the time, just stood there in the driving rain.

I wondered what they were thinking about.

What happens to all those little soccer players, or other little athletes, as they get older and they have already played a 100 or more games in competitive situations by the time they are 12. They've played every night, or Saturday or Sunday, or both. It is no wonder that the number of kids playing dwindles as the kids get older.

Oh, the kids who think they may play in college keep playing in high school and there are still some kids who play for the pure joy of it. I understand that and that's great.

Where do the other kids go?

- Maybe some of them just don't want to play anymore. I wonder Why?
- May be they were being forced to play.
- May be they played on a team more concerned with winning than in teaching skills and sportsmanship and having fun.
- Maybe the little kid did not want to be on travel team anymore.
- May be the little kid just wanted to be a kid and have a little more time with friends hanging around.
- May be the little kid was tired of being coached and organized and critiqued in the car after a game. May be he or she just wanted to go kick the ball or shoot hoops without the pressure of parents and coaches and AAU and PROMISES OF FUTURE GREATNESS.
- Maybe they never really liked playing, but they did not want to let their parents or coaches down.
- May be they are tired of hearing their parents complain in the stands or to each other or to the coach. Sometimes it is embarrassing for the young kid to hear that stuff
- Maybe the little kids are just tired.

I have been involved in high school sports all my working life and I also competed in football in high school.

For me, the best thing that ever happened in athletics is that I never played an organized sport (football) until high school. We played pickup games behind Wayne High School every day after school while in elementary school at OLV. Ripped pants, a little blood and a lot of fun. I was always hiding another pair of ripped pants from my mother. But, as kids, we learned to organize, pick teams (and you learned to deal with it when you were the last pick), officiate the game, play hurt, solve disagreements and still get home for 6 o'clock dinner. The game went on without adult supervision, and if somebody got hurt we got them home. We even called our own plays. No awards dinner, no trophies, no all-state, just fun through competition.

Later, during my 30 years as a high school football coach I always felt bad when I was working with a kid who was only playing for a scholarship. What a grind. Even when we won a game, if his stats weren't good, he was upset. And sometimes so were his parents. Heartbreaking!

I learned when listening to college coaches that football scholarships were awarded based on height, speed and physical potential, and not on wins and stats. Many of the greatest football players to ever suit up for DePaul did not qualify as potential college scholarship athletes. They just loved playing high school football!

Oh.....I know I am writing about a different time but, I will always be interested in the little kids playing on the field next to DePaul and wondering what their future with the game is. I hope they have a little fun and a little freedom to play..... as sports should be played.

For the pure joy of playing and, maybe someday, appreciating the athletic gift bestowed on them by God.

Honoring Our Veterans

Mrs. Judy Gorski

Members of the St. Vincent DePaul Honor Society paid tribute to our Veterans on November 11th by selling flags of remembrance. A total of $236.00 was raised and will be donated to the Gary Sinise Foundation, a charity which supports those who sacrifice to defend our country: active duty, veterans, first responders, and their loved ones. The flags were displayed on the school oval for all to see as they entered and departed DePaul. Students listened as members sang our National Anthem and recited a Veterans Day Prayer. A small tribute to those who have given so much.

School Counseling

Mrs. Anne Gregory
Director of Guidance

Mr. Wooster and I were so excited to meet with Junior parents and students at our College Guidance Presentation on Thursday, November 14th. There was a lot of information discussed and we handed out the senior packet. This packet is comprised of a senior questionnaire, a parent brag sheet and a permission slip to send out your student's records. These will help the counselor and teachers write incredible letters of recommendation when your student applies to college. If you were unable to attend, we have extra copies in the School Counseling office.

Interact Club Mrs. Bathany Dacles

Members of the Interact Club sort and pack the donations from the Thanksgiving Food Drive. We had a great response to the project. A big thank you to all who donated.

Now onto Christmas! DePaul Catholic is committed to providing Christmas gifts for 26 families in the Paterson Diocese. Starting Tuesday, November 19, anyone who would like to help can pick up a tag from Room 104 and purchase a gift for one of the members of these families. Merry Christmas!

Members of the Interact Club hold up some of the books the club recently collected from the DePaul Catholic Community to donate to Catholic Charities for the Diocese of Paterson.

Thank you to everyone who gave books, diapers, and clothing for children in the programs sponsored by Catholic Charities.

Alternative Party

Ms. Melissa D'Auria

To wrap up the first quarter, Seniors in Miss D'Auria's health class threw an alternative party. During the quarter, students learned what drugs and alcohol can do to the body, and the harms of binge drinking. The class decided to throw an alternative party to show how to have fun without the use of drugs or alcohol. Some of the students even got to see the harm in drinking and driving while playing Mario Kart with Fatal Vision Goggles on. Even some students from driver's ed. got to see the impact that alcohol has on driving. Overall, the students decided that drinking and driving is an accident waiting to happen, and spending time with friends and playing games is a better option than drinking alcohol.

News From The Theology Department

Sophomore Retreat

The Sophomore Class spent the day at DePaul Catholic celebrating human dignity & diversity and seeing firsthand the effect of God's transforming love. Clients from Straight & Narrow came to DePaul Catholic and shared stories of the many hardships they faced before they found their road to recovery. Students broke out into small groups and participated in activities focusing on the power of right decisions. A high point was reached when Father Charlie said Mass accompanied by the Straight and Narrow Gospel Choir. Afterward, everyone received a small cross blessed by Father Bill as a keepsake of the honesty, sincerity and faith they witnessed.

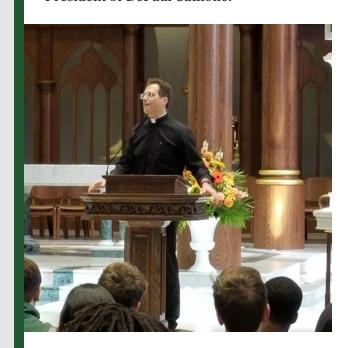

Junior Retreat

The DePaul Catholic junior class retreat took place at the Community Food Bank in Hillside, NJ on November 8th. The students worked energetically in many different capacities that aided the Food Bank operations that day. The DePaul Catholic students then celebrated Mass at The Cathedral in Paterson with Monsignor Geno Sylva former President of DePaul Catholic.

Senior Retreat

The DePaul Catholic High School Class of 2020 participated in their Senior Class Retreat on November 13th at Our Lady of Consolation Parish in Wayne. The students worked through community building activities that focused on perceptions and relationships. Despite the temperature, the students warmed up to the challenge of seeing things and others in new ways and came to understand that 'you can't always blend in when you were born to stand out.' The morning was concluded with Eucharistic Adoration.
